

EIGHT (8) LIFE-SAVING RULES

Violation of any of the following EIGHT LIFE-SAVING RULES will result in termination of employment.

1. Commencing work without completing and signing the job briefing.
2. Climbing trees or operating an aerial device (even on the headache rack) without being 100% secured.
3. Breaking the Minimum Approach Distance (MAD) with any energized conductor using any body part or conductive object.
4. Violation of the danger zone during tree felling operations

- 1.5 times the height of the tree, for crew members
- 2 times the height for any other person

5. Violation of the drop zone in the work area (routine work) during tree trimming operations.

- routine work, do not enter the area delimited by cones

6. Utilizing company vehicle(s) without proper authorization or qualification.
7. Failure to fasten seat belt while operating or riding a company vehicle while in motion.
8. Failure to call a STOP WORK if unsure or if safety is in question.

Name: _____ Date : _____

Signature: _____